Architect-designed luxury flush pull handle

Amanda Leveté, one of the UK's most creative architects, designed this flush pull handle to complement her lever handle. Its simple circular form, with the eccentrically positioned elliptical handle, shows the degree of consideration that goes into all of her, and her practice's, work. Like all izé luxury door hardware, the flush pull handle is available in the full range of izé materials.

Optional specifications : diameter: 104 mm

Finish : available in all ize finishes
