Luxury architect-designed lever handle

Will Foster of architect Foster Lomas developed this handle as part of his practice's refurbishment of a riverside penthouse apartment with views across London. The curved profile and polished chrome finish mirror the reflective surface of lacquered timber panelling in an ante-chamber. Like all izé luxury door hardware, the lever handle is available in the full range of izé materials.

length : 140

Projection : 60 mm

Finish : Available in all izé finishes
