

IZA01

Luxury house numbers

When all the ironmongery for a project is perfect, why compromise on the building numbers? izé can produce this in the design and font of your choice, and in the material that you select. The numbers shown here were produced for the 34 Mayfair restaurant, for which Martin Brudnizki Design Studio took inspiration from Edwardian and Art Deco styles. Why not carry through your inspiration to the numbers on the building, one of the first elements that visitors see?
